

Masters and Mentors

Mentors and Sponsors

At SeirenFilms we believe in free information, passion for our craft and mutual help to achieve our dreams. We're not the sons or daughters of Steven Spielberg. Our lives are not ruled by luck. But we believe the doors are open to those with strong beliefs and authenticity. Standing in the shoulder of giants to see beyond ourselves. We believe in helping each other.

We came across many Mentors and Masters during our lives, and we're open to finding many more. Do you feel like you have something to share with us? Do you believe you can help us, promote us, be our older brother, mentor, sponsor or zen master along the way? Drop us a line. It doesn't matter if you are not part of the Rolex Mentor and Protégé Arts Initiative or a Talent Hunter for the Cinefondation, all it matters is that you have something to share. Mentor. Master. Sponsor, we're listening and honored to sit with you and share experiences.

Anything big or small makes a difference. Do you believe SeirenFilms can help you? We're committed to help rising artists achieve their full potential. Email us. We're listening.

Thanks to Tom, Jason, Marjorie, Marcelo, Dave, José, Kathi, Laurie, Emilia, Ralph, Carole, Manuel, Joe Bear, Mundorad! Some of our Mentors and Masters along the way. Thank you. Gracias.
